Integration Through Sport

Short description:

The vision of RAA is to empower Roma people to join the Roma grassroots movement through fighting for inclusion and a better position for Roma in society. Moreover, RAA plays a key role in the ERGO network and is actively involved in the Decade of Roma Inclusion. They are a group of young Roma and non-Roma students and activists from different cities and communities in Albania which aim to create a space for youngsters to become active in society through empowerment, mobilisation and self-organisation. Their network consists of 27 young Roma and non-Roma leaders and activists. They are actively lobbying and advocating Roma issues at local, national and international level, and conducting analyses, developing new methods and strategies to tackle the exclusion of Roma people in Albania and Europe.
