Type of activity:

Sport for development

Short description:

Over 30% of the world's poorest children live in India. More than 115 million children and young people face extreme poverty every day of their lives. You have the power. Using sport, play and mentoring as our tools, Magic Bus is putting India's most marginalised children and young people on the path from Childhood to Livelihood.

On their journey, they'll learn the skills that will help them succeed in school, become empowered to avoid child marriage and child labour, find a secure job, and leave poverty behind for good.

Right now, Magic Bus is working with over 381,000 children and 30,000 young people across India, Nepal, Bangladesh and Myanmar.
