Type of activity:

Empowerment of young people

Short description:

Yagazie Foundation meets its aim through focusing its work on young people to initiatives that address community needs and, in benefiting others, provide them with a sense of citizenship and community responsibility. Its work currently is focused in Nigeria. The foundation has a high local profile and is recognised as a credible voice for young people and for its activities within the community, which prepare young people for life and work by combining and strengthening volunteering and social action to links to employment, education and training. The focus is to generate in young people a sense of responsibility and ownership for their projects and to support them to progress.
