Type of activity:

Social and gender equality through sport and cultural activities

Short description:

By bridging cultures, fighting social and gender inequalities through sports and cultural activities, TAKT's mission is to build better understanding among communities and foster mutual acceptance through comprehensive approaches based on inclusive modern and universal principles.

TAKT's founders are experienced female athletes with vast experience in international sports events, seminars and workshops, as well as cultural activities. They believe that joint community efforts contribute to social change. They promote sport, culture and gender equality in order to develop positive values, facilitate youths' overall development and empower all generations to improve their quality of life.
