Type of activity:

Empowerment of youth associations

Short description:

YOPP Ghana is an umbrella body that brings together youth associations in order to harness and coordinate the energies and expertise of the youth to champion the course of development in their communities. The key programme areas by which YOPP hopes to achieve its results include sports, education, agriculture and advocacy. The focus is to use sports as the attraction for youth empowerment, awareness creation and development. Sports competitions are organised for youth to develop their physical and sport career opportunities. Young people in the area are increasingly losing their cultural artefacts and heritage and this needs to be protected. The establishment of a cultural village and organisation of cultural symposiums is central to these components.
