Short description:

Don Bosco Mondo is a non-profit organisation (NPO) committed to supporting disadvantaged youth worldwide. As their advocate, the NPO mobilises personnel, spiritual and financial resources, and it also aims at spreading and increasing the enthusiasm for their joint efforts. Don Bosco Mondo sees school education and vocational training as the key to empowering young people to live independent lives free from poverty. In close partnership with the Salesians of Don Bosco and the Salesian Sisters of Don Bosco, assistance is provided to more than 15 million children and adolescents beyond all limits. Organisations, including the Ethiopian Federal TVET Agency, the Ministry of Youth, Sports and Culture, state vocational schools, Don Bosco Mondo e.V. among others, are advised by German development cooperation's "Sport for Development in Africa" (S4DA) Regional Project on developing concepts for implementing S4D and embedding it in their structures. As a result, the Federal TVET Agency is introducing sports departments in colleges, taking a first step towards integrating S4D into the curriculum of the TVET education system.
